Before you set sail for Cuba, spend the day splashing around Cocoa Beach or hang with some astronauts at the Kennedy Space Center. Then blast off to Havana to experience the country's rich culture and colorful sights. Take a relaxing stroll along the evocative Malecón, the quintessentially Cuban thoroughfare and get lost among the Baroque facades and colonial cobblestone streets of Old Havana. Enjoy a friendly game of dominoes with the locals and sip a daiquiri at Hemingway's favorite haunt, El Floridita. As the sun sets over Havana, the excitement heats up as you dance the night away at the world-famous Tropicana. Come discover Havana by daylight and moonlight.
