Itinerary

This itinerary is only offered once...so join our group and all the camaraderie.

DATE	PORT	DESCRIPTION
May 20	Civitavecchia (Rome), Italy	The Eternal City can fill your day with museums, churches, archaeological sites, traditional trattorias, artisan shops and of course, gelato. The Colosseum and the Vatican Museums are Rome's superstar attractions, but there are plenty of quieter gems to explore.
May 21	Day at Sea
May 22	Argostoli, Cephalonia, Greece	Argostoli is Cephalonia's port town on the bay of Livadi. It was rebuilt after a devastating 1953 earthquake. The architecture, although new, remains traditionally Greek.
May 23	Kotor, Montenegro	You will be wowed by the dramatic beauty of this coastal Montenegrin town. Dreamy seafront villages are set to a backdrop of mountains plummeting into the Adriatic Sea, while the stone labyrinth of the Old Town is filled with medieval architecture and historic monuments.
May 24	Dubrovnik, Croatia	On the southern end of Croatia's Adriatic coast, Dubrovnik staked its claim to glory during the 450 years it existed as the independent Ragusan Republic, shoulder to shoulder with mighty forces like Venice and the Ottoman Empire.
May 25	Split, Croatia	Split is a lively city and home to some 200,000 residents, and getting lost in its labyrinthine streets is the best way to explore its historic heart. Stumble across lively cafes and shops tucked into its ancient palace, or venture beyond it to discover busy squares and markets, quiet trails and beautiful beaches.
May 26	Korcula, Croatia	Old Town is the island's treasured highlight and a UNESCO World Heritage Site candidate. Its stone architecture and historic ambiance reflect almost four centuries of Venetian rule, with towered gates, lion statues, magnificent palazzos and elaborate stonework peppering the charming streets.
May 27	Kerkira, Nisos Kerkira (Corfu), Greece	The island reflects a triple heritage. As being undeniably Greek, the culture and food also show a clear nod towards nearby Italy whose fortresses dot the island. The British influence may be unexpected, but as they ruled the island for many years, they have left such surprises in the Mediterranean as cricket and ginger beer.
May 28	Catania, Sicily, Italy	Recent decades have seen major restoration and revitalization, making the city an ideal spot to explore local street markets, visit Roman ruins and learn about a rich history that dates back to Ancient Greece. Catania's central location on the eastern Sicilian coast also makes it a great base for exploring nearby Taormina and Syracuse, the wineries on Mt. Etna and idyllic local beaches.
May 29	Valletta, Malta	This ancient city is teeming with historic monuments churches and gardens, easy to explore on foot. The city dates back to the 16th century and has been listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1980. Decades of British rule mean that English remains an official language, along with the local Maltese language.
May 30	Day at Sea
May 31	Naples (Pompeii), Italy	Home to world-class museums and attractions, Naples has something for everyone. There are endless opportunities to explore. The celebrated Roman ruins of Pompeii and Herculaneum lie just south of the city. The delightful town of Sorrento and the magnificent scenery of the Amalfi Coast are within easy reach, and the dolce vita glamour of Capri and the healing thermal waters of Ischia—are a short hydrofoil hop from the mainland.
Jun 1	Civitavecchia (Rome), Italy	Disembark
